European illustrators and writers to hold 250 workshops in Tehran

Tehran Times Art Desk

TEHRAN (MNA) — A total of 250 illustration and writing workshops are to be held during the Festival of European and Iranian Children's Literature being held from September 22 to October 8 at the Institute for the Intellectual Development of Children and Young Adults (IIDCYA) in Tehran.

Sixteen children's book illustrators and 12 children's book writers from Europe will be holding workshops for about 2500 children in which they will tell stories and guide the children in creating illustrations based on the stories.

The workshops will be held every day in the morning and in the afternoon with the aim of nurturing the artistic and cultural talent of the children.

A book comprised of the best selected illustration works is to be published at the end of the festival.
